+ Cross indicates the person is deceased.

No cross the person is alive.

SG indicates that the intention is at Saint Gerard

All of us know people of good character, people who have a reputation of being decent, respectful of others, law-abiders who lead good lives, or so they appear. We also know of some who, even though they enjoy a good reputation, turn out to be a whole lot less than we thought, some of them going on to bring terrible hurt to others and inflict real damage upon them. As the old saying goes, appearances are deceiving. Looking good does not mean that our hearts are filled with goodness.

The scribes and Pharisees had a certain kind of goodness, even holiness. Jesus did not condemn them for the goodness they sought, rather He condemned them for what they did not have in their hearts. They had no depth. They governed their thoughts and actions by their external observance of the Jewish laws and how they appeared in the eyes of others.

Do we govern our actions on the basis of what others will think of us? That's superficial; it governs us on the basis of appearances. That motivation is external, not internal. It's shallow and doesn't come from deep down within us — where we really live. Jesus wants His Holy Spirit to dwell deep within us, in our hearts and souls. It's from there that our actions should begin. It's from there that our motives are formed, motives formed in generosity and in the unlimited love and care of God, for ourselves, and for others.

God gave us a tremendous gift, the gift of freely choosing. This is because love isn't truly love unless it is freely given – and freely received. After all, a gift isn't a gift unless and until it is received. God has paid us a tremendous compliment in that He respects our decisions. That is why He never forces our decisions. He offers and then He waits for our response. His love for us is unconditional. His only law is love, a love within us that governs our choices and the actions that flow from our choices.
