Dear Friends,

Last weekend we celebrated Trinity Sunday and also Father's Day. I was really surprised how many people wished me 'Happy Father's Day' after the 10:00 Mass at St. Gerard's. Many of the parishioners said to me, "Why are you surprised, you are a father, you are a father to all of us." A few of the parishioners went on to say, "You are also a pastor, you have so many children in your family"

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, or the Body and Blood of Christ. In his General Audiences on June 9, 1993, St. Pope John Paul II said, "This is a wonderful expression: 'The center of the life of the entire Church.' The Eucharist makes the Church, just as the Church makes the Eucharist".

St. John Paul II went on to say during the same audience: "The Synod speaks further of the Eucharist as the "heart of priestly existence." This means that the priest, desiring to be and remain personally and profoundly attached to Christ, finds him first in the Eucharist, the sacrament which brings about this intimate union, open to a growth which can reach the heights of mystical identification. At this level, too, which is that of so many holy priests, the priestly soul is not closed in on itself, because in a particular way in the Eucharist it draws on the love of him "who gives himself as food to the faithful" (PO 13). Thus he feels led to give himself to the faithful to whom he distributes the Body of Christ. It is precisely in being nourished by this Body that he is impelled to help the faithful to open themselves in turn to that same presence, drawing nourishment from his infinite charity, in order to draw ever richer fruit from the sacrament."

Let us be thankful today and everyday for the most wondrous gift of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. It's important to remember without the priesthood there is no Eucharist, so we should always be grateful for our priests and pray for them.

This weekend we join our own Fr. Nelson, C.Ss.R. and his classmate, Archbishop Edward Gilbert, C.Ss.R. in giving thanks for a combined 100 years of priesthood. Thank you Fr. Nelson and Archbishop Gilbert for your many years of dedication and ministry to the Church.

Here at Sacred Heart we are particularly grateful for the many years Fr. Nelson has served our parish. Like every priest, Fr. Nelson has been consecrated by the Lord, set aside and anointed. On this very special day, we ask you Lord, to fill Fr. Nelson and every priest with your Holy Spirit. Grant them your continued strength, so they can teach, preach, minister, console, forgive, and feed your Church with Your Body and Blood.!

Finally, we ask that you give Fr. Nelson and Archbishop Gilbert on this day the gift You gave your chosen ones on the way to Emmaus: Your presence in their hearts, Your holiness in their souls, Your joy in their spirits. And let them see You face to face in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread.

May Mary our Mother, and the Mother of all priests, watch over and protect our priests.

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. John F. Murray C.Ss.R.

Father John Francis Murray, C.Ss.R.

GOOD STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

This last Monday was our final Bingo until the fall. I want to thank all of our volunteers who give up so much of their time to come out every week to support this wonderful parish ministry. Also this year we had great support from our school parents. Some parents volunteered their time, and some parents supported Bingo by dropping off food.

Thank you Bingo volunteers and school parents for being 'good stewards' - Fr. Murray

Our Mother of Perpetual Help, June 27

The Icon of Our Mother of Perpetual Help is an authentic expression of Byzantine art from ancient times. The gold background represents the Kingdom of God and the gold shining through the clothing reflects deification. The icon invites us to become sharers in this glory. The persons portrayed are: the Mother of God, Jesus Christ, the Archangel Michael, and the Archangel Gabriel. Mary's head is tilted with maternal affection toward the Christ Child on her left arm. Mary's eyes are not fixed on her Child or on the instruments of the Passion which the two angels hold out to Christ. Rather, she gazes toward those who are looking at the icon. With eyes and attitude of sorrow and love she invites all to consider Our Savior.

The Christ Child has the appearance of apprehension when presented with the instruments of His Passion. In His mother, he finds the greatest comfort and tenderness. In his haste to run into her protective arms, He almost loses one of his tiny sandals thereby signifying to us that we should hasten to seek her loving assistance in our troubles. Christ's fingers hold his Mother's right hand, yet they rest quite loosely there. In this lies another lesson. Through the protection of His Most Holy Mother, Our Lord grew to His adulthood and initiated His Saving Work. As she protected Him, she prays for us still to Her Divine Son!

The Pope's Corner

A special message to his priests

Dear Brother Priests,

In the eternal "today" of Holy Thursday, when Christ showed his love for us to the end (cf. Jn 13:1), we recall the happy day of the institution of the priesthood, as well as the day of our own priestly ordination. The Lord anointed us in Christ with the oil of gladness, and this anointing invites us to accept and appreciate this great gift: the gladness, the joy of being a priest. Priestly joy is a priceless treasure, not only for the priest himself but for the entire faithful people of God: that faithful people from which he is called to be anointed and which he, in turn, is sent to anoint.

For me, there are three significant features of our priestly joy. It is a joy which anoints us (not one which "greases" us, making us unctuous, sumptuous and presumptuous), it is a joy which is imperishable and it is a missionary joy which spreads and attracts, starting backwards – with those farthest away from us.

A joy which anoints us. In a word: it has penetrated deep within our hearts, it has shaped them and strengthened them sacramentally. The signs of the ordination liturgy speak to us of the Church's maternal desire to pass on and share with others all that the Lord has given us: the laying on of hands, the anointing with sacred chrism, the clothing with sacred vestments, the first consecration which immediately follows... Grace fills us to the brim and overflows, fully, abundantly and entirely in each priest. We are anointed down to our very bones... and our joy, which wells up from deep within, is the echo of this anointing.

An imperishable joy. The fullness of the Gift, which no one can take away or increase, is an unfailing source of joy: an imperishable joy which the Lord has promised no one can take from us (Jn 16:22). It can lie dormant, or be clogged by sin or by life's troubles, yet deep down it remains intact, like the embers of a burnt log beneath the ashes, and it can always be renewed. Paul's exhortation to Timothy remains ever timely: I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands (cf. 2 Tim 1:6).

A missionary joy. I would like especially to share with you and to stress this third feature: priestly joy is deeply bound up with God's holy and faithful people, for it is an eminently missionary joy. Our anointing is meant for anointing God's holy and faithful people: for baptizing and confirming them, healing and sanctifying them, blessing, comforting and evangelizing them.

And since this joy is one which only springs up when the shepherd is in the midst of his flock (for even in the silence of his prayer, the shepherd who worships the Father is with his sheep), it is a "guarded joy", watched over by the flock itself. Even in those gloomy moments when everything looks dark and a feeling of isolation takes hold of us, in those moments of listlessness and boredom which at times overcome us in our priestly life (and which I too have experienced), even in those moments God's people are able to "guard" that joy; they are able to protect you, to embrace you and to help you open your heart to find renewed joy. (Holy Chrism Mass, April 17, 2014)

The Sanctuary Light is a Reminder

By Dina Giordano

We, the Eucharistic communities of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, being faithful to the Mission of the Church as expressed by the Redemptorist way of life, seek and invite others into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus and with one another. Seeking to build up the Kingdom of God, empowered by the Holy Spirit, nourished by the Sacraments and Prayer, we commit to reaching out to everyone through evangelization, especially to those most in need. Mission Statement

“An icon of Christ, the ordained minister”

But "the members do not all have the same function. "Certain members are called by God, in and through the Church, to a special service of the community. These servants are chosen and consecrated by the sacrament of Holy Orders, by which the Holy Spirit enables them to act in the person of Christ the head, for the service of all the members of the Church. The ordained minister is, as it were, an "icon" of Christ the priest. Since it is in the Eucharist that the sacrament of the Church is made fully visible, it is in his presiding at the Eucharist that the bishop's ministry is most evident, as well as, in communion with him, the ministry of priests and deacons.

St. John Paul II, Vocation Quote

"I am often asked, especially by young people, why I became a priest. Maybe some of you would like to ask the same question. Let me try briefly to reply. I must begin by saying that it is impossible to explain entirely. For it remains a mystery, even to myself. How does one explain the ways of God? Yet, I know that, at a certain point in my life, I became convinced that Christ was saying to me what he had said to thousands before me: 'Come, follow me' There was a clear sense that what I heard in my heart was no human voice, nor was it just an idea of my own. Christ was calling me to serve him as a priest."

And you can probably tell that I am deeply grateful to God for my vocation to the priesthood. Nothing means more to me or gives me greater joy than to celebrate Mass each day and to serve God's people in the Church. That has been true ever since the day of my ordination as a priest. Nothing has ever changed this, not even becoming Pope." (Los Angeles, USA, September 14, 1987)

Son-Treasure Island : Vacation Bible School 2014

Over a hundred students from kindergarten to youth and adult volunteers gathered in the Family Center of Sacred Heart Catholic School to kick off this summer's Vacation Bible School. Participants are welcomed by the captivating sound of island music and the taste of tropical fruits and drinks. Themed "Son Treasure", the school gym is colorfully decorated with tropical ornaments and all activities synced around the theme.

Students, all treasure seekers, play island games, create colorful crafts, and enjoy tropical snacks they made. They are thrilled to make 'edible' beach towels out of crackers and icing, celery as boats, crafts such as treasure boxes, maracas, beach pails and shovels, etc. made out of recycled materials donated by our generous parishioners.

This year's BVS is grateful for the time, talent, and treasure of the many volunteers who pitched in and devoted their time to make it a success. SHS principal Leigh Svajko, Pat Adams, and Lisa Buck help with registration. Judy Morales takes charge of lunch and activities in the gym. Our two seminarians Bryan and Kevin help out in the Bible story station; Jeanette Ferdig, Tayra Ramos, and Carol Ehrhardt lead the food station while Jonah Morales, Kori Spiropolous, Joseph Scott, Dorothy Martin, and Patrick Conroy work on the skit. Our farm station, which is one of the most popular and well-loved stations in the camp, is courtesy of Lisa Blais and family. Parent and youth volunteers assist in the smooth transition of almost a hundred children from one station to another.

Organized by our parish faith formation team led by our pastor Fr. John Murray, Agustina Conroy, Ivy Wick, and Maria Bilodeau, ..this year's Vacation Bible School is truly a treasure less than ordinary. Our participants discovered the greatest treasure of all - the treasure of God's love through the life of His Son Jesus Christ!

Every Tuesday of the year, at Sacred Heart Parish, we hold a Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Since Sacred Heart Parish is in the care of the Redemptorist Fathers, devotion to Our Lady is very much a part of our parish life. The Redemptorists Rule of Life as written by St. Alphonsus requires that Redemptorists have an extraordinary love and devotion to our Blessed Lady and to promote this devotion to all in their care.

Each Tuesday, after the 11:00am Mass and the 7:00pm Service we have Novena Devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Come and be strengthened and blessed by Our Lady.

“Never was it known that anyone who fled to her for protection, or sought her intercession was left unaided. St. Bernard
