Dear Friends,

We humans are complex creatures. Our flesh (our physical existence), our mind (our intellect and reasoning faculties), and our soul (the affections, passions, and emotional attitudes which we hold dear), combine to make us who we are. Though each of these areas impacts the others, it is easy for us to live a life of dichotomy, disassociating one area of our life from the others. For example, though we may know something to be true we often have an emotional response which is contrary to what we know. We can possess a young mind in an aging body, or vice versa. We can express real rage while driving home from a meaningful time of devout worship. We are complex, frequently behaving in ways that contradict each other, and our lives are often unmanageable mysteries.

Therefore to make sense of our mysteriously complex lives it is important to know how Jesus answered the simple question that appears in this week's Gospel reading; "What is the greatest commandment?" He does not simply say to love God, but qualifies his response by saying we are to love God with all of our heart, with all of our mind, and with all of our soul, thus recognizing the possibility of living a life of dichotomy. To Jesus, a half-hearted, unreasoned, lukewarm response to God is unacceptable, and a contrary response to what the greatest commandment calls forth. Jesus' explanation calls forth from us a complete abandonment to God in love, a total giving of ourselves, heart, mind and soul.

For all of us, this total giving of ourselves in love is a constant challenge, for both our nature and the world offer alternatives for our affections. At every turn our minds are confronted with supposedly enlightened knowledge that purports to refute the wisdom of God. Additionally our physical beings resist the discipline of dedication and cry out for the comfort of complacency. Invariably we must periodically renew our vow of love and commitment, through major acts of devotion, lest we discover that our love has grown cold. The seasons of the liturgical year call forth and provide opportunities for the renewal of our love. In addition these vows of love and commitment to God need to be nourished daily by quiet acts of devotion like Scripture reading and prayer. When either major or quiet acts of devotion is abandoned for any length of time our love for God may quietly, steadily grow dormant.

Francis De Sales, writing in the days of mechanical clocks, truly captures the essence of spiritual maintenance: "There is no clock, no matter how good it may be, that doesn't need resetting and rewinding twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening. In addition, at least once a year it must be taken apart to remove the dirt clogging it, straighten out bent parts, and repair those worn out. In like manner, every morning and evening a man who really takes care of his heart must rewind it for God's service. Finally, at least once a year he must take it apart and examine every piece in detail, that is every affection and passion in order to repair what ever defect there may be." (From Introduction to the Devout Life)

Now is a good time for your soul's annual spiritual check-up and maintenance, as we approach the end of the liturgical year.

I hope this reflection from Emmaus Journey was helpful for you this weekend. God bless you and all your loved ones,

Your brother in Christ,

Father John Francis Murray, C.Ss.R.

THANK YOU TO ALL THOSE WHO TURNED OUT FOR THE REDEMPTORIST VISITATION ON WEDNESDAY EVENING!

Saint of the Week

Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles,

October 28

St. Simon is represented in art with a saw, the instrument of his martyrdom. St.

Jude's square points him out as an architect of the house of God. St. Paul called himself by this name; and St. Jude, by his Catholic Epistle, has also a special right to be reckoned among our Lord's principal workmen. But our apostle had another nobility, far surpassing all earthly titles: being nephew, by his father Cleophas or Alpheus, to St. Joseph, and legal cousin to the Man-God, Jude was one of those called by their compatriots the brethren of the carpenter's Son. We may gather from St. John's Gospel another precious detail concerning him. In the admirable discourse at the close of the last Supper, our Lord said: "He that loveth Me, shall be loved of My Father: and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him." Then Jude asked Him: "Lord, how is it, that Thou wilt manifest Thyself to us, and not to the world?" And he received from Jesus this reply: "If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and will make Our abode with him. He that loveth Me not keepeth not My word. And the word which you have heard is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me."

Scripture Reflection for Today

God's love rules all

Jesus summarized the whole of the law in two great commandments found in Deuteronomy 6:5—"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might" - and Leviticus 19:18 - "you shall love your neighbor as yourself". God's love directs all that he does - His love is holy, just, and pure because it seeks only what is good, beneficial, and life-giving - rather than what is destructive, evil, or deadly. That is why he commands us to love—to accept and to give only what is good, lovely, just, and pure and to reject whatever is contrary.

God puts us first in his thoughts

God is love and everything he does flows from his love for us (1 John 3:1, 4:7-8, 16). God puts us first in his thoughts and concerns - do we put him first in our thoughts? God loved us first (1 John 4:19) and our love for him is a response to his exceeding goodness and kindness towards us. The love of God comes first and the love of neighbor is firmly grounded in the love of God. The more we know of God's love, truth, and goodness, the more we love what he loves and reject whatever is hateful and contrary to his will. God commands us to love him first above all else - his love orients and directs our thoughts, intentions, and actions to what is wholly good and pleasing to him. He wants us to love him personally, wholeheartedly, and without any reservation or compromise.

"Lord Jesus, your love surpasses all. Flood my heart with your love and increase my faith and hope in your promises. Help me to give myself in generous service to others as you have so generously given yourself to me."

The Pope's Corner

Pope Francis - "Prayers of praise rise like burning incense!"

It is an "unrestrained" hymn in which the Apostle uses the word "bless" three times: "Blessed be God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places". But, the Pontiff pointed out, "we all know that God is the Blessed One": in the Old Testament, in fact, "it was one of the names that the people of Israel gave Him: the Blessed One". It is curious to think of "blessing God" because "He is the Blessed One".

In truth, it is an important gesture, because "when I bless God, I praise Him", and this praise rises "like burning incense". Prayers of praise aren't done habitually, yet, Francis highlighted, it was Jesus Himself who taught us, "in the Our Father, to pray this way: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name...". It shouldn't seem unusual to turn with these words to Him who "is the Holy One". It is about expressing the "joy of the prayer of praise", which is "purely free", the Bishop of Rome explained. In fact, generally, "we know how to pray extremely well when we ask for things" and also "when we thank the Lord"; it is less customary for all of us "to praise the Lord".

We might feel a stronger incentive toward this type of prayer, the Pope advised, if "we remember the things that the Lord has done in our life", as did St Paul, who recalled in his hymn: "He chose us in him" — in Christ — "before the foundation of the world". Here is the source of our prayer: "Blessed are you, Lord, because you have chosen me!". Man must, so to speak, feel the "joy of paternal and gentle closeness".

The thought of having always lived in the heart of God "fills us with joy" and "gives us security". This security is confirmed by the Lord's words to the Prophet Isaiah, who asked himself whether this affection could ever fail: "Can a mother forget her children? And even should a mother forget them I will not forget you". God holds each of us in his "bosom", the way "a baby is inside his mother". (Vatican City, News. Facing the Holidays Following a Loss

The Bereavement Ministry of Sacred Heart Parish will hold a support group to help our grieving parishioners through the Holiday season. The group will hold six meetings, with the first meeting to be held Tuesday Nov. 18, from 2:00 to 3:30 PM, continuing each Tuesday through December 23 rd. Please call the parish office (428-6426) if you plan to attend so we can be prepared with materials.

Junior Legion of Mary

Last Sunday, Oct. 19th, mass was celebrated with Fr. Murray, 17 Legionaries, their families and parishioners at the 9.00am Mass where each Legionaire received a religious statue which was blessed by Fr. Murray. The Legionaries wrote letters to Pope Francis with inquiries about his visit here next year. Pope Francis very graciously responded to their letters. Thanks to Father Murray, parents, teachers and everyone who help support our Legionaries. We are so “blessed” to have a Jr. O.L.P.H. Legion of Mary.

We now have a movie library of the “lives of Saints” for our Legionaries to learn from.

The Legionaries were also invited to help work at the Legion of Mary booth at the Diocesan Youth Rally in Orlando.

We meet on Wednesdays at 3.00pm, come join us and pray Rosary with us!

Every Tuesday of the year, at Sacred Heart Parish, we hold a Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Since Sacred Heart Parish is in the care of the Redemptorist Fathers, devotion to Our Lady is very much a part of our parish life. The Redemptorists Rule of Life as written by St. Alphonsus requires that Redemptorists have an extraordinary love and devotion to our Blessed Lady and to promote this devotion to all in their care.

Each Tuesday, after the 11:00am Mass and the 7:00pm Service we have Novena Devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Come and be strengthened and blessed by Our Lady.

“Never was it known that anyone who fled to her for protection, or sought her intercession was left unaided. St. Bernard
