Reflection

Good and evil are sown in our hearts like tiny seeds which germinate, and in due time yield a harvest of good or bad fruit. Charles Read said: "Sow an act and you reap a habit. Sow a habit and you reap a character. Sow a character and you reap a destiny." In the day of judgment each will reap what he or she has sown in this life. Those who sow good will shine in the kingdom of their Father. They will radiate with the beauty, joy, and fullness of God's love.

Do you allow the love of Christ to rule in your heart and in your actions?

"Lord Jesus, let your word take root in my heart and may your all-consuming love transform my life that I may sow what is good, worthy, and pleasing to you."

Ministry News

Helen Prentiss, a long time member of Sacred Heart, is coordinator of our Prayer Shawl ministry. As Helen knits these beautiful shawls, her prayers are woven into each one. Prayers for God's love and healing of body, mind and spirit. Each Prayer Shawl, when finished, is blessed by a Priest. If you or someone you know would like to receive a Prayer Shawl please call the church office.

May this Prayer Shawl, made for you with love
Be a mantle and a sign of God's healing presence.

May it warm you when you are weary.

May it surround you with ease in your suffering.

May it encircle you with caring when you are in pain.

May it comfort you when you are alone.

And may it remind you of God's abiding love.

MAT MINISTRY NEWS

Members of our Mat Ministry continue to work at home completing mats. Helen Prentiss and her daughter Carol have come up with a new technique to complete the mats using a loom to weave prepared plastic strips. Many of the gray bags are from Walmart so the girls got a little creative on one of the sections. Helen says it takes over 800 bags to make one mat. So keep those bags coming in, especially different colored ones!

Sacred Heart Choir may not be able to attend practice in the traditional setting due COVID19 but has met great success meeting on a virtual platform. What started as a check-in for members that have not gathered since mid-March, the virtual Zoom gathering has now progressed to include actual music practice alongside the social component.

Marina Moffitt, Choir Director, has encouraged members to practice their vocal skills while rehearsing new music in a non-stress approach.

Starting in June, the gathering has been a great way to serve and connect the parish community in this way. The weekly gathering has from 9 to 15 members connect live from their living rooms or porch for an hour.

If you are interested in checking out the 'Virtual Choir Practice' or would like more details, please contact Marina at marmoffett@gmail.com. She will send you a link to join the next meeting, which is currently held each Wednesday from 6 to 7 pm.

Sacred Heart Catholic School is proud to announce our school reopening August 12th for the 2020-21 school year!

As we prepare, plan and pray for a positive return to campus with all health and safety protocols in place, students will continue to thrive in our small, secure, supportive, spiritual, and successful academic environment.

Community Hot Meals Program/New Smyrna Beach We continue serving delicious hot meals to our homeless community even during this pandemic. Costs have skyrocketed, however. Instead of serving our guests in Fellowship Hall on plates with eating utensils and drink tumblers, we are greeting them in masks, outside with filled to-go containers, plastic ware and beverage bottles. These disposable items are an unexpected expense! Please consider volunteering, donating grocery bags, sharing our post, and/or making a financial donation to:

Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer

The feast is found only in the special calendar of some dioceses and religious orders, and is celebrated with proper Mass and Office either on the third Sunday of July or on 23 October.

In Venice this feast has been observed for more than three centuries with great solemnity. Moroni in his "Dizionario" gives some interesting data concerning the origin of this feast. In 1576 a plague broke out in Venice which in a few days carried off thousands of victims. To avert this scourge the Senate vowed to erect a splendid temple to the Redeemer of mankind, and to offer therein each year on the third Sunday of July public and solemn services of thanksgiving. Scarcely had the plague ceased when they began to fulfil their vow. The church was designed by the famous Andrea Palladio, and the corner-stone was laid by the Patriarch Trevisan on 3 May, 1577. The celebrated painters Paolo Veronese and Jacopo Tintoretto decorated the interior. The church was consecrated in 1592, and, at the urgent solicitations of Pope Gregory XIII, placed in charge of the Capuchin Fathers.

By concession of Pope Benedict XIV, dated 8 March, 1749, the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer solemnizes this feast as a double of the first class with an octave on the third Sunday of July. The same congregation also keeps the feast as a greater double on 23 October and 25 February, and has, besides, the privilege of reciting once a month the votive office of the Most Holy Redeemer. In Rome also Pope Pius VIII introduced the feast and by a Decree of 8 May, 1830, the Sacred Congregation of Rites assigned it to 23 October. The characteristics of the Mass and Office are joy and gratitude for the ineffable graces and benefits of the Redemption. This appears especially from the Introit "Gaudens gaudebo", from the antiphons of Lauds "Cantate Domino", from the Epistle of the Mass, taken from St. Paul to the Ephesians, chap. i, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who hath blessed us with spiritual blessings . . . in Christ". For this reason white is the colour of the vestments, and not red, as in the Mass of the Passion.

Heavenly Father, we could never thank our military men & women Policeman, fireman and 1st Responders enough for their courageous service and sacrifice to our country and its people. Show us ways in our communities, churches, and families to thank and love them better. Keep and protect these heroes and their families, in the powerful name of Jesus we pray. Amen.
