Baptism of the Lord

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

Reflection

Jesus came to give us the fire of his Spirit that we may radiate the joy and truth of the Gospel to a world in desperate need of God's light and truth. His word has power to change and transform our lives that we may be burning lights pointing others to Jesus Christ. Like John the Baptist, we too are called to give testimony to the light and truth of Jesus Christ.

Do you want the Lord's power, grace, and love to burn brightly in your life? Ask him to fill you with his Holy Spirit.

John preached a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins (Luke 3:3). Why did Jesus, the Sinless One, submit himself to John's baptism? In this humble submission we see a foreshadowing of the "baptism" of his bloody death upon the cross. Jesus' baptism is the acceptance and the beginning of his mission as God's suffering Servant (Isaiah 53). He allowed himself to be numbered among sinners. Jesus submitted himself entirely to his Father's will. Out of love he consented to this baptism of death for the remission of our sins. Do you know the joy of trust and submission to God?

Lord Jesus, fill me with your Holy Spirit and with the fire of your love and goodness.

May I always find joy and delight in seeking to please you in doing your will just as you have delighted in the joy of pleasing your Father and doing his will.

Special Collection

THIS WEEKEND—JANUARY 9, 2022 Seminarians

This special collection for seminarians is used to support the formation of seminarians as they discern their vocation to the priesthood. Preparing for the Sacrament of Holy Orders is a nine year process of intellectual, spiritual, pastoral and human formation that prepares men to answer the call they have received to serve God's people in love and humility. The full cost of a seminary tuition, insurance and books exceeds $400,000 during the nine year formation period.

Your support ensures that our seminarians receive adequate tuition assistance.

Gluten Free Host

If you require a gluten free host during communion you will need to receive the host from the priest.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners

Well.... It's all over... Christmas, it came and went just like that! I truly hope each and every one of you had a good Christmas, filled with fun and excitement and good times with family and friends.

I guess before long – if we haven't already done it - it will be time to put all the Christmas decorations and things away until next year. The tree starts looking old and the lights don't seem to be so bright anymore after Christmas is over... it's a new year and we need to get on with that.

I am sure that most of you have a manger or several mangers with Jesus and Mary and Joseph? Isn't it nice to look at that and think about the Christmas Story and Jesus being born? But I guess it will be time to put Jesus away too, back in the boxes and back in the closet.

But you know, maybe we shouldn't put Him away, because we do that all too often. Not in a box or closet, but sometimes we put Jesus away from our hearts. After Christmas it seems that we get busy with the New Year and getting back into the routine of things and we forget to think about Jesus and talk to Him and pray. I guess without knowing it, we really do put Him away.

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the official end of the Christmas season and back to "Ordinary Time". But Baptism also marks a new beginning. Mindful of that why not make this be a new beginning, living out the promises of our Baptism – and not put Jesus away. Don't forget about Jesus. Talk to Him, think about Him and pray! Jesus is not just for Christmas but all year long. It is Jesus who makes every time of the year important and we should never put Him away. Keep Jesus out, keep Him out and visible in your thoughts, words and deeds, in how you treat those around you. And as you do, also keep Him in your heart. That is what our Baptism calls us to do! In the words of Scrooge from a Christmas Carol: "I will honor Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year."

As we come to an end of the Christmas season, I would like to thank all those who so freely and generously gave their gifts to Sacred Heart and St. Gerard. From those who contributed to our flower collection in memory of a loved one, to our talented musicians and choirs who brought a solemn celebration to our liturgies, those who ministered at our masses, those who decorated our church, and all those who silently worked behind the scenes. Thank you for sharing your gifts with your parish. A special thank you also to all in the parish who graced the rectory with your beautiful cards, kind words, and generous gifts; on behalf of the Redemptorist Community, thank you all so much!

Small Church Communities are set to begin at St. Gerard on Wednesday, January 19 at 11:00 am.

Initially all of our small Church Community meetings will be held at St. Gerard until the small groups establish their own schedules.

What Is A Small Church Community?

(Excerpt taken from: <https://holyspirit-indy.org/ministries/small-church-communities>)

A Small Church Community (SCC) is a small group of adults who gather to reflect on their lives in the light of the Gospel and to share their Christian faith through prayer, friendship and service.

The early Christians gathered in small groups, most frequently in a home. That experience allowed a deep sharing of faith and life. Today, SCCs facilitate that deep sharing in the presence of trusted friends. Relationships are formed in which sharing, listening and genuine communication are nurtured. The sharing of faith and life leads to action on behalf of others.

Although each SCC is unique in its membership, style, and meeting format, every SCC is involved in the following activities:

- Mutual support and faith sharing
- Prayer and ritual
- On-going formation in Scripture and Tradition that enables tangible connections between faith and life.
- Outreach beyond the SCC

An Organization Meeting will be held at St. Gerard on Wednesday, January 19 at 11:00 am.

Please contact Annie McDevitt at 386-427-4604 if you are interested in participating, but cannot make that time/date.
