Reflection

If we follow the Lord Jesus and entrust our lives to Him He will open our eyes to the light of His truth and guide us by His Holy Spirit along the path that leads to our true homeland with God. If we follow the course which is set by the ruler of this present world - a world which is opposed to Christ and blinded by Satan - then we will discover that sin, pride, and deception will lead us down a path of destruction, death, and separation, rather than life, freedom, and friendship with God and the people He has redeemed with the precious blood of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Which kingdom will you serve - today, tomorrow, and for all eternity? This present world will pass away, but God's kingdom will endure forever. If we accept Jesus Christ as Lord and King and submit to His rule for our lives, we become citizens of heaven and inherit an everlasting kingdom which is ruled by righteousness, peace, and love.

Is the Lord Jesus the true King and Master of your life?

Lord Jesus Christ, you are my King and there is no other. Be the Lord and Master of my heart, mind, body, and soul. May I always seek to do your will and to serve your kingdom above all else.

Dear Parishioners

One day, so says an old legend, God gave a banquet for all of his servants, and a really grand feast it was. All the virtues came and had a fine time.

Humility was there sitting in the lowest place at the table.

Charity was cutting the meat without rationing it.

Patience was there and didn't mind at all being served last.

Faith and Hope sat together.

Everyone was having a wonderful time.

At the height of the banquet, Charity noticed that two of the virtues were strangers to each other. He was surprised because He thought they were always together, like partners, and he had purposely placed them side-by-side for just that reason. These were Kindness and Gratitude. He came down to them and asked each one,

“Hi, Kindness, have you met Gratitude before?”

“Gratitude, have you met Kindness before?”

“Ah!!! I wouldn't call her my partner at all. I think that would be a little of a stretch. Don't you think? I mean, I just see her once in a blue moon when I make my rounds,” Kindness replied.

“I personally see Kindness all the time but we have ever been properly introduced.”

Both virtues were so surprised to find out who the other was. Kindness said to Gratitude:

“We are supposed to be always together. Where one of us is the other should be, but when men receive you Kindness, they ignore Gratitude.”

This Thanksgiving, make it your resolve to always have the virtues of Kindness and Gratitude together - at your table, in your home and part of your life each and every day.

MINISTRIES IN ACTION!

Dick and Mitch Abbott are our Knights of Columbus/ Sacred Heart Family of the Month. Well-deserved! The Abbotts are always serving our community through the Church, the soup kitchen, and the Society of SVdP.

This year, Dick is on the Parish Pastoral Council.

Thank you for what you both do and thanks to all the families at Sacred Heart and St. Gerard!

Rosemary McGivern and Cindy Boulter birthdays were celebrated last Monday at Sacred Heart BINGO! (Their ages remain a secret!). 80-plus bingo players sang happy birthday and shared in celebrating them with birthday cake.

Best wishes to Rosemary & Cindy!

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

Stories of Leadership around Sacred Heart—Celebrating Veterans Day hosted by our 7th grade class. May true and lasting peace always be our goal, together, as one nation under God. And to our veterans on this, their day, we say, “Thank you for your service.”

Stories of Kindness around Sacred Heart

First Grade Social Justice Project for Term 1 was a loving support for nursing home/assisted living facility workers. They packed treats with gift cards to take care of those who devote their time and effort caring for the sick and the elderly. This is such a beautiful work of mercy. Thank you first graders, Mrs. Menke and Mrs. Zelenty, and all our first grade families .

Thanks to our principal Mrs. Labreche for encouraging leadership!

Many miracles have been reported since the October Novena to St. Gerard, so the praying group decided to continue accepting personal prayer petitions for the intercession of St. Gerard. The table with the paper, pens and vase to drop your prayers is now located in the southeast corner by the statue of St. Gerard.

The Praying Group meets each Tuesday at 11:00 am to pray to the Lord for your petitions and more. All are invited.

Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry; praise to the Divine Heart that wrought our salvation; To it be glory and honor forever. Amen

The community of St. Gerard offers a special note of thanks to our Redemptorist priests for the many ways you each minister to all of us. You tirelessly go through each day bringing the sacraments to the faithful in a very large community!

We are especially thankful that the Redemptorists currently offer our community two locations for the Celebration of the Holy Mass. How blessed are we to receive Christ close to home.

Thank you Father Aldrin, Father Jim and Father John for all you do for us. You are a treasure!

Photographs needed at St. Gerard's Mission Church.

Do you love catching spontaneous moments of people together? This is a little something you can do for your parish family—take pictures before/after Mass or around the building during the week for the weekly bulletin.

If you attend Mass anyway, it would not involve much more time than snapping a few candid shots with a camera or cell camera.
