Reflection

The prophet Isaiah spoke of the Day when the Lord would judge between the nations and establish peace over the earth. In that day the righteous - all peoples who believed in Him and who listened to His teaching and instruction - would come to His holy mountain and house to worship Him and dwell with Him in everlasting peace (Isaiah 2:3-5). The Advent season reminds us that we are living in the time between the first coming and second coming of the Lord Jesus.

The Lord Jesus calls us to be alert and watchful for His coming. He comes to us each and every day and He knocks on the door of our heart and home. Do you listen for His voice and welcome Him into your life? Let His word in the Scriptures and the work of the Holy Spirit who dwells in you draw you to a deeper faith, hope, and yearning for His kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy. Those who wait upon the Lord today and listen to His word will not be disappointed. The Lord will come and bring you to His banquet table to feast with Him.

Lord Jesus, you have captured my heart for you. Make me strong in faith, steadfast in hope, and generous in love that I may seek to please you in all things and bring you glory and praise.
Keep me ever watchful for the coming of Your Kingdom today and every day of my life.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

The Advent Argument...it's the yearly debate about Advent, and it goes something like this: The first person began, "Why do we start to celebrate Christmas so early? The decorations are up in early November; the carols begin before Thanksgiving; the tree goes up now. No wonder we're sick of Christmas by December 26th!" Another will chime-in, "Yeah, remember fifty years ago when we were kids? The tree would not go up until Christmas Eve; carols would never be heard till real close to Christmas; there were some added days of fast and abstinence during Advent; even Christmas Eve was a day of penance! Wasn't that better? We so looked forward to Christmas because we waited!"

But -- as the Annual Advent Argument continues -- the next person observed, "There's nothing we can do about it! Society begins the Christmas season before Thanksgiving and ends it on December 25. The Church starts preparing for Christmas during Advent -- purple vestments, no Gloria said or sung, advent wreathes, no carols or decorations in church -- then begins the Christmas season with Mass on Christmas Eve, and ends it on the Epiphany. The Church is out of it and will just have to change."

What to do? Well, we can't put the toothpaste back in the tube, as much as we might be nostalgic for a very serious Advent. So, on the one hand, I guess we'll have to make some peace with our culture's way-too-early celebration of Christmas.

But we can hardly forget about Advent altogether! Spiritually, it's part of our Catholic heritage and tradition. Even from a human point of view, we'll enjoy Christmas a lot more if we wait. As the old saying goes, "pleasure delayed is pleasure enjoyed." We haven't "lost" Advent.

Look on the bright side; okay, we admit that society -- including ourselves -- start celebrating Christmas way too soon, usually forgetting about Advent preparation. But at least we can thank God that such noble sentiments abound this time of the year: friendship, generosity, family unity, rallying for the poor and hungry, attention to babies and children, gift-giving, happy memories, goodwill. I'll take that anytime of the year!

However, wherever, whenever you do it . . . please do Advent! It's too significant to forget! Christmas will be a lot happier if we prepare and wait. Happy Advent!

God Bless Us All

Fr. John

St. Gerard Bulletin Board Face Lift!

The St. Gerard Bulletin Board was in desperate need of help. A creative, organized and colorful face lift has been achieved thanks to time and creative talents by Anne Swift of SG Leadership Team and Mary Ann Oliver of SG Arts and Environment. You can now easily identify and view items of interest with the tastefully designed columns that differentiates information according to category.

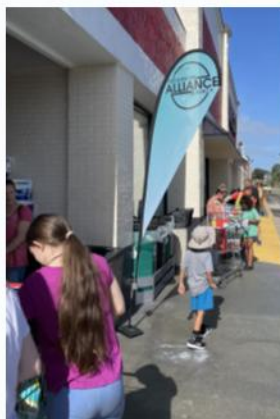

With this new design, we respectfully request that if you have information you would like displayed, place a request in the Suggestions Box or speak with either Anne Swift or Mary Ann Oliver. They will insure it is placed properly.
