Diocesan Special Collection

September 17, 2023

Priest Retirement and Priest Care

This collection supports the needs of our senior diocesan priests (not religious order). The funds are needed to attend to the spiritual, pastoral, and human needs of senior priests by providing opportunities for them to participate in priest gatherings, retreats, convocations, and assist with their growing medical needs. The priesthood is a lifelong gift, and your gift will be a blessing to the senior priests of our diocese.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners

Today is Grandparents Day! So in celebration of this special day, I would like to share with you an essay that one third grader wrote about a special person in their life. He wrote about his grandma and this is what he wrote:

"A grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own, so she likes other people's boys and girls. Grandmas don't have anything to do except be there. If they take us for walks, they slow down past pretty leaves and caterpillars. They never say 'Hurry up.' Usually they are fat but not too fat to tie shoes. They wear glasses, and sometimes they can take their teeth out. They can answer questions like why dogs hate cats and why God isn't married. They don't talk like visitors do which is hard to understand. When they read to us, they don't skip words or mind if it is the same story again. Everybody should try to have a grandma, especially if you don't have TV, because grandmas are the only grownups who always have time."

Grandparents: a few thoughts for you, too—

You have a unique chance an unbelievable opportunity, really to influence several generations... because the example you give your grandchildren will stay with them throughout their lives and have an impact on how they relate to their own children and grandchildren. Your special bond with your grandchildren lets you play so many wonderful roles! You can be a caretaker, storyteller, family historian, mentor, wizard, confidant, negotiator between child and parent, and even a model for your grandchild's own old age! And when a child has a strong emotional tie to a grandparent, they enjoy a kind of immunity—they don't have to perform for grandparents the way they must for their parents, peers and teachers. The love of grandparents comes with no strings attached.

Because of your special and unique relationship, you have an opportunity like no one else to lead your precious grandchildren to God. Grandparents have gone through many hardships and yet because they are faithful in their faith they have a great impact on children. Make sure your grandchildren learn the true faith. Teach them with your words, but even more by your examples. Teach them how to pray. Teach them to go to Mass every Sunday... and to go often to confession. Teach them to be proud to be Catholic and what that means. In other words, share with them the wisdom that earned you your grey hairs and is now leading you to holiness. That is why God entrusted grandchildren to you! Remember, you do not just serve the Lord while you are young, and then back off as you get older. You persist in faith and the labor of love all of your life

Happy Grandparents Day!

God Bless Us All

Fr. John

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

Mrs. Brown's 8th grade Art class explore color techniques and and artmaking process to communicate the beauty of student's given name.

Mrs. Glynn's second grade class is immersed in academic learning that promotes cooperative work, problem solving, decision making, data collection and analysis using math skills.

S.T.R.E.A.M. with Science

Mrs. Panagis' 6th grade science class were all hands on deck in preparing the next cycle of our aquaponics project. On its third year and in collaboration with Mrs. Walker, aquaponics is a self-sustainable garden system that uses tubes and pumps to circulate wastewater from fish to plants. The plants draw nutrients from fish waste and filter the water which is then circulated back to the fish.

This STREAM project helps in promoting care for God's creation, one of the seven themes of Catholic Social Teachings of the Church.

of a little bread,
for our salvation.”

St. Francis of Assisi

small church communities make a BIG difference!

Do you ever wonder, “Why am I not understanding the readings at Mass?” Perhaps you might benefit from the fellowship of a small church community. These groups are 6-8 people who gather each week to discuss the upcoming readings of the week.

All participants believe they are growing in a deeper understanding of Jesus’ teaching and find strength by sharing views on scriptures. Establish new friends and grow in your walk with your Lord and Savior.

We currently have two groups meeting at St. Gerard.

Monday at 1:00 pm (begins Sept. 18)

Friday at 10:00 am (currently operating)

Feel free to stop in & you will certainly be welcomed!

Intercessory Prayer Hour

"For where two or three gather in my name, there I am with them." Matt. 18:20

All are invited to gather at St. Gerard on Tuesday mornings at 11:00 am for an Intercessory Prayer Hour. The purpose of our group is to come together to support each other and pray for friends and family in our faith community for their specific needs. It is a casual group of between 6-12 people with room to grow. If you feel hopelessness over a specific situation in your life, or those you love and are searching for social and prayerful support, we encourage you to join us.

We begin by naming our current prayer petitions and record them in our Intercessory Prayer Book. Then, together we recite a scriptural Rosary, The Divine Mercy Chaplet and a few other short prayers.

We look forward to praying with YOU.
