How Do I Adore?

Our adoration begins when we walk in the door of the church or adoration chapel. When we genuflect before the Blessed Sacrament, kneel in the pew, and show Him our respect by giving Him our full attention, we adore Him. When we turn off our cell phone and maintain a reverent silence in the chapel, we adore Him. When we make a simple act of faith in His Real Presence, we adore Him. When we place ourselves before Him as empty vessels to be filled with His love, we adore Him.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Dear Parishioners

This weekend we honor the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus in 1492. This Italian-born explorer and navigator, Christopher Columbus was a practicing Catholic and had a keen interest in the Bible and He interpreted his missions in terms of God's Providence, naming one of his 3 boats the "Santa Maria" in honor of Our Blessed Mother. He, perhaps the greatest explorer the planet has ever known, radiated a sense of dream, dare, excitement and energy that is part of the Italian genius.

Keep in mind that, for Columbus, his voyage of discovery was a work of evangelization. On board were missionaries; his first act upon landing in the New World was to plant the cross, claim the new lands for Christ and His Church, and ask the missionaries to offer Mass.

As the Roman roads provided Peter and Paul, those first apostles, and the missionaries of the first centuries the way to spread the faith, so did the seas give Columbus the chance to serve his first sovereign, Jesus Christ.

As an Italian, though, Christopher Columbus was used to discovery; discovery was in his Italian nature. As an Italian, Christopher Columbus was raised to discover God in everything; God was there in His Son Jesus Christ and His Church, in liturgy and sacraments; God was there in the awe of a cathedral, a fresco by Giotto, a canticle by Francis of Assisi, a poem by Dante; God was there in a crucifix by the painter Cimabue, music by monks, a madonna at a street crossing, and a sunset in Tuscany; God was there in the aroma of bread and the taste of local wine, the love of a husband and wife and the embrace of children; God was there in village, family and friends. God was always there to be discovered, as Italians such as Redemptorists Alphonsus Liguori of Naples and Gerard Majella of Materdomini (whose feast is this Wednesday, October 16th), Thomas Aquinas, Ambrose of Milan and Bonaventure had taught. Life revealed God everywhere, and no part of His creation, even though uncharted, was beyond the pale of His loving providence.

I guess, had the Italian Christopher Columbus not done so, someone else could have discovered America. But it was indeed one born in Genoa, one who had the culture of Italy in his bones, who claims the title. This son of Italy realized that this discovery was not just some navigational feat with geographical, economic and political implications, but an act of faith, an act flowing from the very purpose of life: to find God everywhere, in everything, in everybody, for God is radiant, alive, brimming over with love and excitement, just waiting for us to discover Him and claim Him.

Happy Columbus Day!

St Gerard Majella and Eucharistic Adoration

Wed, October 16th we celebrate the feast day of our humble patron Saint.—St. Gerard Majella. Known as the Mother's saint, families around the world have been helped by his powerful intercession for healthy pregnancies and smooth childbirth.

He also had a great devotion to Eucharistic Adoration. According to the early-20th-century biography The Life of Saint Gerard Majella, he would take every opportunity he had to spend time before Jesus in the Eucharist. He did this because of his great love of Jesus, knowing that he was truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

So this year in honor of our Redemptorist Saint, you might spend some time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Even if it be 5,10,15 minutes— to adore and share gratitude for life. It is as simple as coming into any Catholic church and sitting in front of the tabernacle or if you prefer, Sacred Heart offers Exposition and Adoration every Saturday in the Sacred Heart Chapel from 9:00 am –3:00 pm.
