THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The term "Communion of Saints" refers also to the communion of "Holy Persons" (Sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all.

Dear Parishioners

There is a sacred story from the Jewish tradition which tells of a certain rabbi and his wife who had two sons to whom they were extremely devoted. One Sabbath morning while the rabbi was teaching the Law in the synagogue, both boys were struck by a sudden illness and died. Their mother laid them out on a bed and covered them with a white sheet. When the rabbi came home for his meal and asked where the children were, his wife made some excuse and waited until the rabbi had eaten. She did not answer her husband's question but instead asked one of him. "I am placed in a difficulty," she said, "because some time ago a person entrusted to my care some possessions of great value which he now wants me to give back. I am unsure of what to do. Am I obliged to return these great valuables to him?"

"That you should need to put this question surprises me," the rabbi replied. "There can be no doubt about what you must do. How can you hesitate to restore to everyone what is his own?" His wife then rose from the table and asked the rabbi to follow her. She led him to the room where the two bodies lay and pulled back the sheet. "My sons, my sons," groaned the father in pain. "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away," said his wife through her tears. "Blessed be the name of the Lord. You have always taught me to restore without reluctance what has been lent to us for our happiness. We have to return our two sons to the God of all mercies."

Just as Mary was forced to give up her only Son, just as she had to return to God the Father the great gift of life He gave to her in Jesus His Son, so we must learn to return to God those who have died. Today, on All Souls Day, we celebrate their sacred memory; today we remember them as the faithful departed. They are not just the faithful departed from us, they are the faithful returned to God. Our faith calls on us not only to lament our loss but to celebrate their gain. And to pray for their eternal peace.

Like the Jewish woman in the story, we are consoled by our faith in difficult times. Of course, faith does not banish our sense of loss, but it affirms the great truth that all life is a gift from God. Who we are is what we have been given. Our faith also educates the hope we share that we will return to the source of life, the God of all beginnings. Death is not a door into the dark, it is a dark door into the light. Those we have loved and all the faithful departed have passed through that door, and during this Mass and every Mass, we pray for their eternal peace and joy.

Today we hold holy the memory of all the faithful who have been called to return to God. We bless God for the many ways they have enriched our families, our communities, our church and parish, our life of faith. We pray that as we remember their names before God, they will remember us. The faith and love that bound us together with them in life still binds us in their new life. We pray that their prayers will support our own hope as we continue our journey in faith. Our journey is the road that will take us to eternal joy. As St Alphonsus Liguori wrote:

This earth is for us a battlefield where we have to fight and conquer in order to be saved. But when we reach heaven our state is changed. There will be no more toil, but rest; no more fear, but security; no more sadness or weariness, but gladness and Joy Eternal.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

Embracing the joy of learning ‘At Sacred Heart... integrating Catholic faith and values in a safe, supportive, and challenging academic environment.’ Theology 8 students researched and analyzed homelessness and poverty problems, presented their findings in class, and proposed solutions.

October is a partnership with our parish community and community at large. Student Council officers and class representatives distributed “Change for Life” baby bottles, a project in collaboration with the Knights of Columbus. All proceeds to benefit our community. In pictures are Class Reps Penelope N. and Caroline R. with Mrs. Labreche.

GO EAGLES!

A day of learning, exploring, and fun in Mrs. Mulverhill’s and Mrs. Castillo’s Kindergarten class! Kindergarten worked on their sight words today. Using Play-Doh, they made many words and some even wrote their names. Keep up the good work, Kinder kids!

The Knights of Columbus in action, cooking and serving for the homeless in NSB, helping clean up after Hurricane Milton and many other acts of charity. But most important, The Knights are committed to strengthening their faith and the faith of all catholic men. The Knights would like to ask all catholic men to consider joining our team. Please talk with any Knight and get more information.

Do you want to add Eucharistic Adoration to your prayer time with Jesus, but not quite sure how to spend that time? Here are a few ideas.

- Pray the psalms or Liturgy of the Hours
 - Recite the Jesus Prayer
 - Meditate using Scripture
- Read the life of a Saint and pray with him or her or other spiritual reading.
- Pour out your heart to Christ and adore him
- Ask for forgiveness and intercede for others
 - Pray the Rosary
- Sit quietly and just “be” in the presence of God
