Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners

Tomorrow, November 11th is Veterans Day. On November 11, 1921, an unknown American soldier from World War I was buried in Arlington National Cemetery in recognition of WWI veterans, and in conjunction with the end of hostilities at 11 a.m. on November 11, 1918---the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. This was President Warren Harding's request: "All... citizens... indulge in a period of silent thanks to God for these... valorous lives and of supplication for His Divine mercy... on our beloved country."

Inscribed on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier are the words, "Here lies in honored glory an American soldier known but to God." That day was known as Armistice Day until 1954, when Congress, wanting to recognize the sacrifice of veterans since WWI, proposed to name it Veterans Day. President Dwight D. Eisenhower, former Supreme Commander in WWII, signed the legislation.

To honor those Patriots of the ultimate sacrifice, an Army honor guard from the 3rd U.S. Infantry (The Old Guard) keeps a day-and-night vigil at Arlington. At 11 a.m. today, a combined color guard representing all military service branches will execute "Present Arms" at the tomb. The President will then lay a wreath. This will be followed by "Taps". It is a fitting place and a focal point to honor American veterans, but as General George S. Patton, Jr., reminded us, "It is foolish and wrong to mourn those who died. Rather we should thank God that such persons lived." Indeed.

Today and tomorrow stop, remember and pray for all our veterans. Those who live and served, those who serve today and those who gave their lives. In closing, in honor of all our Veterans as we celebrate Veterans Day on Monday, I would like to share with you the words from country music singer Trace Adkins song:

Arlington

*I never thought that this is where I'd settle down, I thought I'd die an old man back in my hometown,
They gave me this plot of land, me and some other men, for a job well done.
There's a big white house sits on a hill just up the road, The man inside he cried the day they brought me home,
They folded up a flag, and told my mom and dad, 'We're proud of your son'.*

*And I'm proud to be on this peaceful piece of property, I'm on sacred ground and I'm in the best of company,
I'm thankful for those thankful for the things I've done, I can rest in peace,
I'm one of the chosen ones, I made it to Arlington.*

*I remember daddy brought me here when I was eight; We searched all day to find out where my granddad lay,
And when we finally found that cross, He said, 'Son this is what it cost, to keep us free'.
Now here I am a thousand stones away from him, He recognized me on the first day I came in,
And it gave me a chill, when he clicked his heels, and saluted me.*

*And every time I hear, twenty-one guns, I know they brought another hero home, to us.
We're thankful for those thankful for the things we've done; We can rest in peace, 'cause we were the chosen ones,
We made it to Arlington, yea; dust to dust Don't cry for us, we made it to Arlington.*

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

On Friday, October 25th, Sacred Heart School celebrated Trunk or Treat! Parents enjoyed our Trunk or Treat just as much as our kids!

Thank you so much, PTO, for this very special evening with all our Sacred Heart family and friends!

Sacred Heart School students participated in the Knights of Columbus Baby Bottle Drive. The drive is to raise money and awareness for pregnant women who have no one to turn to or no where to go while pregnant. The SHS Student Council ran a two week contest between all classes to raise money, and the Knights bought pizza and ice cream for the 3rd grade which won the contest. SHS students were able to raise over $1,000 for the Baby Bottle Drive. THANK YOU Sacred Heart School! GOD Bless!
