Redemptorists Serving our Parish Since 1926

We, the Eucharistic communities of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, being faithful to the Mission of the Church as expressed by the Redemptorist way of life, seek and invite others into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus and with one another. Seeking to build up the Kingdom of God, empowered by the Holy Spirit, nourished by the Sacraments and Prayer, we commit to reaching out to everyone through evangelization, especially to those most in need.

Dear Parishioners

An American priest was touring the Holy Land. He especially wanted to study the places where Jesus lived, worked, suffered, died and rose from the dead. He became good friends with a young boy named Josef, the son of an Arab shepherd. The young boy served Father's Mass and taught him some of the difficult Arabic words.

As the priest was about to leave for other parts of the Holy Land, he told Josef: "Not many boys and girls have the privilege of living in the land where Jesus lived. You know that God's Son, as a Boy and as a Man, walked these roads and breathed this air. Doesn't that help you to love Him more?"

Josef gave this very thoughtful answer: "You don't have to live here to love our Lord, because now He lives in every part of the world. Every land now is the Holy Land. Wherever we are, we are in the land of Jesus."

Did you ever think of this: New Smyrna Beach is part of the Holy Land? Jesus lives right here, right now.

On this feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, we recall when Jesus spoke the words: "This is my Body...this is my Blood." Today we celebrate the fact that these words are repeated all over the world every day, that Jesus is present on altars all over the world. Christ lives here. This is the Holy Land! Annapolis is the Holy Land!

This is Bethlehem; Jesus is born right here in every Holy Mass and in every baby that is baptized in the waters of our font.

This is Nazareth; Jesus grows up right here in our lives. Jesus works miracles right here, spiritual miracles: He heals us of the leprosy of sin; He heals those spiritually broken so they can walk in His way; He gives sight to those who cannot see the things of the Spirit. Christ forgives sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

This is Cana; Jesus attends every marriage in our church.

He attended funerals in His homeland; He is right here when we bury our beloved dead.

This is the temple at Jerusalem; Christ teaches right here through His priests and Deacon, through His School and Religious Education teachers, through the parents of His children.

Jesus was present in the villages, the churches, the streets, the fields, the lakes, the hills, and above all in the homes of the Holy Land; He is present in our homes too.

Most important, this church of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard is the "large upper room" where Jesus spoke the words of consecration for the first time. No land could be holier than this.

Yes, you and I are actually living in the Holy Land, because Jesus lives right here in our midst. The Body of Christ is with us. You - We are the Body of Christ!

God bless us all

"Don't look, I'm about to change."

Today's Feast of Corpus Christi also serves as a good reminder to all of us: We don't call it the "wine" but the Precious Blood.

Music Ministry News

The Music Ministry team at Sacred Heart and St. Gerard are taking a summer break from weekly choir practice. Even though we are not practicing weekly we will still meet to lead music at all Masses. For anyone interested in getting involved, it might be a good time for you to "try on" the ministry. The best way to get started would be to stop by the choir area following Mass and chat with whoever is directing. We would love to have you join the team!

Heavenly Father, we could never thank the men & women of our military, police, fire and 1st responders enough for their courageous service and sacrifice to our country and its people. Show us ways in our communities, churches, and families to thank and love them better. Keep and protect these heroes and their families, in the powerful name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

ST. GERARD HOSPITALITY HOUR!

St. Gerard celebrated Ascension by offering Hospitality Hour after Mass with the addition of a "Closet Give-away". Two very dedicated anonymous parishioners have donated countless hours doing the monumental task of cleaning out the southwest room (also used as a meeting room). All the items on display represent years of well wishing parishioners donating holy household items. It's now time to re-gift them. The food is always terrific but the wonderful company makes it taste even better!

Until we eat again....
