Saints Peter & Paul Apostles—June 29, 2025

Welcome to the Redemptorist Community of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School and St. Gerard Mission
Redemptorists Serving our Parish Since 1926

We, the Eucharistic communities of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, being faithful to the Mission of the Church as expressed by the Redemptorist way of life, seek and invite others into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus and with one another. Seeking to build up the Kingdom of God, empowered by the Holy Spirit, nourished by the Sacraments and Prayer, we commit to reaching out to everyone through evangelization, especially to those most in need.

Dear Parishioners

The other day, on Friday, the Church celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. I didn't want such an important day to pass without recognition and sharing a few words.

There's a story told of a young boy who, along with his older siblings, was visiting his grandmother. The older siblings were telling the grandmother about their all-school Mass from the previous week, where they had celebrated the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They were keen to share with their grandmother what they had learned about Jesus and His love for them. The more they conversed with her, however, the more upset the youngest one became, until he finally burst into tears. His grandmother asked him what was wrong, and he answered, "Nana, I looked really carefully at the cross in Church, and I paid real close attention during Mass, but I just couldn't see Jesus' secret heart!"

Bless him, for didn't this young one in his mishearing of the solemnity, and the object of devotion, identify for us our own occasions of missing the point? For there is nothing secret about Jesus' heart, or His profound, boundless love for us. There it is, laid bare upon that cross. We speak of people "wearing their heart on their sleeve," and here is our redeemer wearing his heart in the crown of thorns on His head, and in the stripes of the scourge and the wood of the cross on His back. No, there is nothing secret, and everything sacred, about Jesus' heart.

What the young boy misunderstood, and what the Church aims to do with this devotion, is to recognize "the fact that [Christ's] Heart, more than all the other members of His body, is the natural sign and symbol of His boundless love for the human race. 'There is in the Sacred Heart,' as Our predecessor of immortal memory, as a previous, not current Pope Leo but Leo XIII, pointed out, 'the symbol and express image of the infinite love of Jesus Christ which moves us to love in return'.

What an honor and blessing that our parish bears the name, spirit and holiness of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We give thanks to God for the countless parishioners, who through our 100 years as a parish, have borne witness to that love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in love and service of others. Through the intercession and example of Saints Peter and Paul whom the Church honors this weekend, may we like them believe and share of love of Jesus Christ and His Sacred Heart as they did. Saint Peter and Saint Paul, pray for us!

It is no secret that God loves us. Let there be no secret that we love Him.

God Bless Us All,
Fr. John

Pastors Pun: Why is there no knock-knock joke about America?
Because freedom rings.

Mindful that we celebrate Independence Day this week I share with you this simple prayer, originally written by George Washington: "Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to your law, we may show forth your praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, do not allow our trust in you to fall; all this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord." AMEN!

"Where are you this summer?" The series is back!

Summer fun is in full swing! Incoming 8th graders Ariana G., Kiley Z., and Mia W. kicked off the summer season with sunshine and sisterhood, enjoying an unforgettable time in Savannah, Georgia - complete with laughter in cowboy boots and excitement at the Megan Maloney concert! Southern charm, good vibes, and great music made it a perfect start to summer break!

This Series features Tristan S. and family visiting Epic Adventure at Epic Universe! From the moment they stepped into the park, they were surrounded by colorful attractions and incredible rides. They tried the jaw-dropping, state-of-the-art roller coasters that twisted and turned faster than they could imagine. Next, they explored amazing themed worlds, where they could interact with their favorite characters and embark on thrilling adventures.

The highlight? The mind-blowing 3D rides that made them feel like they were flying or diving underwater! They also tried out the interactive games that let them battle dragons and solve mysteries in secret lairs. With delicious snacks, cool merchandise, and tons of laughter with family, it was a day filled with unforgettable moments.

The magic of Epic Universe is something our incoming 5th grader Tristan S. will never forget!

Enjoy your summer and thank you for sharing your epic photos!
