Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being,
with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”

Luke 10:27

Welcome to the Redemptorist Community of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School and St. Gerard Mission
Redemptorists Serving our Parish Since 1926

We, the Eucharistic communities of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, being faithful to the Mission of the Church as expressed by the Redemptorist way of life, seek and invite others into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus and with one another. Seeking to build up the Kingdom of God, empowered by the Holy Spirit, nourished by the Sacraments and Prayer, we commit to reaching out to everyone through evangelization, especially to those most in need.

Beautify our Sanctuary

As we celebrate Eucharist each week, you are invited to share in the gift to beautify our sanctuary with flowers. Your gift will help to defray the cost of the flowers and purchase them in memory of someone or for a special intention. Those who donate for the altar or Blessed Mother flowers, we will put the name and intention in the bulletin that weekend.

Your donation:

Main Altar Arrangement: $75
Stop by the office or feel free to call 386-428-6426.

Dear Parishioners

A summertime reflection:

Do I sound like a broken record to you, Lord? I know I must sound that way to my son. When I listen to myself talking to him, I can't believe what I'm saying!

"What's the matter with you . . . can't you hear me?" "Don't talk back to me — and answer me this minute!" "How many times do I have to tell you?"

Of course he can hear me. They could hear me in China. And how could he answer me this minute when I just told him not to talk back to me? But that last one: "How many times do I have to tell you?" is one of the mysteries of the universe, Lord. I will never know the answer to that.

I told him 3,986 times that he is nice-looking, intelligent, and fun to have around. He says I never compliment him. I told him once that he was disorganized. He never forgot it. He says he has his own filing system all that stuff all over the floor is alphabetically thrown — and his mother is always criticizing him.

I have told him a hundred times in a hundred ways what a joy he is as a son. He pretends he has never heard that. But when I "tactfully" suggest that he should wash his favorite jeans at least once a month, he says I am always harping on the same subject and his mother is a born complainer.

You see, Lord? There is no answer to the question, "How many times do I have to tell you?"

Is that the way you feel about me, Lord? You have told me a million times in a million ways how much you love me. And still, I sometimes question you. You have told me how I should live — by giving me the commandments and the Beatitudes and your Church and Scripture. And still, I sometimes act as though I never hear you.

Forgive me, Lord. Help me to be less of a broken record, repeating my mistakes over and over. Help me to listen and learn and obey and live in such a way that you will know I have heard. But, Lord, WHEN is my son going to learn that his skateboard should not be stored on the sofa and his dirty clothes should not be used as a doorstop? How many times do I have to tell him, Lord, how many?

Although I am not a gardener, I have learned a lot about it from Scripture! So many of the parables of Jesus have to do with images of gardening and reaping and sowing. And having so many beautiful gardens in and around both Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, and in addition to my thanks for all who tend and care for them and our lawns, I share the following:

10. We really do "reap what we sow"-Good seeds bear good fruit.
9. Without rains and storms there is no growth - no fruit is produced.
8. When weeding, be careful! We can't always tell the difference between a nasty weed and a beautiful flower.
7. Deep roots are a good thing. Without them, we'll wither and die.
6. Pruning and trimming, as painful as it seems, actually works to our advantage.
5. In gardening, as in life, cheating does not work. Short-cuts, slipshod efforts, and neglect always show up in the quality of our garden.
4. Like anything worthwhile, beautiful gardens require attention, hard work, and commitment.
3. We cannot rush the harvest. Bearing fruit takes time and patience. Premature fruit is almost always sour.
2. Gardening and growing is a lifetime experience. We can experience growth and beauty until the day we die.
1. Fertilizer happens! In fact, nothing much grows without it.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

Had to share—A Heart of Kindness at True North VBS

At True North VBS, a moment of pure kindness shone through when a young camper, Davidson B., noticed another boy feeling sad and crying because he dropped his treats and lost his tokens, which were awarded as rewards for participation.

Without a second thought, Davidson approached the other boy with a warm smile and offered him his own tokens. "Here, you can have these," he said. "I have enough, and I think you should have a chance to get something from the "store" too!" It's like Christmas, you know!"

WOW! This is what a Sacred Heart student is! He also made a sign for his lemonade stand and plan on using the money he will raise to buy clean water for the poor. Thank you, Davidson, our incoming 1st grader - VBS' Most Faith-filled Awardee!

Summer Vacation "Where are you this summer?"

Beachside Baptist Surf Camp 2025 Sacred Heart Campers brought home some awards!! So proud of these kiddos!!

Where is Mr. Kilbourne this summer - Wrigley Field with his son (8th grade math teacher).

FAITH & PRAYER at Sacred Heart

Choir members from each weekend Mass gathered together with our community of faith to honor and celebrate the Feast of Sacred Heart of Jesus and Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Celebrating the outpouring of divine mercy and God's immense and merciful love for humanity, these loyal dedicated music ministers led the congregation as we prayed in song.

Our community is so blessed with a large family of folks who love Jesus, Mary, Mass and praying twice in song!

Adoration – Holy Hour

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Are you in a hurry, overwhelmed with difficulties, family problems, and health issues?

Can't you stop thinking, creating stories in your mind, analyzing scenarios, and solutions for your situation?

Do you need help preparing for confession?

Come and learn to give everything to God. Jesus is waiting for you here in the Tabernacle to help you take your cross.

Jesus highly values the gift of empty hands. All your helplessness, your fear, your joy, and your happiness.

Whatever you feel, come and share with Jesus. Build your relationship with Him.
