After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him.

*Welcome to the Redemptorist Community of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School and St. Gerard Mission
Redemptorists Serving our Parish Since 1926*

We, the Eucharistic communities of Sacred Heart and St. Gerard, being faithful to the Mission of the Church as expressed by the Redemptorist way of life, seek and invite others into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus and with one another. ### Dear Parishioners

A story is told of a multimillionaire businessman, known for his extravagance, who hosted an elaborate, spectacular summer party. Part of his decorations and part of the uniqueness of his party was that he had filled his swimming pool with sharks, barracuda and other assorted dangerous fish.

After cocktails and dinner had been served, everyone was just standing around looking at the assortment of dangerous sea life. The businessman announced to his guests that he would like to challenge any of them to try swimming across the pool. And to sweeten the challenge he offered a first prize of either a new home in the mountains, or a trip around the world for two, or a piece of his business.

No sooner had he made the announcement than there was a splash, and a man swam rapidly across the infested waters and bounded up out on the other side. The millionaire turned to the sputtering young man, shaking water off of himself and said: "That was an absolutely stunning performance. What prize do you want?"

With a growl and a scowl, the swimmer said: "Right now I really don't care about the prize. All I want is the name of the turkey who pushed me in."

I can assure you that the water of our baptism is dangerous; it is filled with sharks, barracudas and other dangerous sea life. I can also pretty much guarantee that should you take the plunge, accept Christ and be baptized, you probably won't get a new home in the mountains, or a trip around the world for two. But I can promise that you will get a piece of the business, God's business. Kingdom business. The business of Redemption and forgiveness through Christ.

But you know, Baptism is not an event of the past. It is a present fact. When we remember our baptism we don't usually say I was Baptized but we say, "I am baptized." Our Baptism is not just something that happened in the past, something that was done to us. It is something that is active and working NOW, TODAY! Our Baptism calls us and challenges us to act as Jesus did. In what we say and what we do, in the way we treat one another.

As we come to an end of the Christmas season, I would like to thank all those who so freely and generously gave their gifts to Sacred Heart and St. Gerard. From those who contributed to our flower collection in memory of a loved one; to our talented musicians and choirs who brought a solemn celebration to our liturgies; those who ministered at our masses; those who decorated our church; to our Knights of Columbus for keeping vigilant watch at the doors, and all those who silently worked behind the scenes. A special thank you to Mike Slayton who made our beautiful manger! Thank you all for sharing your gifts with your parish. A special thank you also to all in the parish who graced the rectory with your beautiful cards, kind words, and generous gifts. On behalf of the Redemptorist Community, thank you all so much!
