RAISE THE ROOF

Dear Parishioners

One of the most curious celebrations in the Catholic Church is the blessing of throats for St. Blaise's memorial on February 3rd. I can recall as a small child being told about the blessing of throats and seeing it done at church. I sort of took it for granted, and as I grew up the majority of Catholics I met had at least heard of the practice. The Catholic Church has canonized hundreds of saints, but very few have a tradition quite as widespread or commonly practiced as the blessing of throats.

We actually know very little about the life of St. Blaise. In fact, what we can say with confidence is that he was a Bishop and that he was martyred in 316 A.D. A few other bits that come up fairly consistently about him are that he was born to a wealthy family, was raised Catholic, and became a bishop at a young age. Other than that, the things we know about him come from writings dated hundreds of years after his death.

The blessing of throats comes from a story of St. Blaise healing a woman's son from choking on a fishbone. The use of candles in the blessing recalls a story in which a woman sent St. Blaise candles while he was in prison so that he might be able to read Scripture. This act of gratitude was prompted by St. Blaise commanding a wolf to return to the woman her pig, which the wolf had stolen. In addition to healing throats, St. Blaise was known for healing animals and being able to command them.

To me, the blessing of the throats really drives home that God's love is very real and very specific. I mean, throats? That's pretty precise. Remembering St. Blaise and the blessing of throats strengthens me against a misunderstanding of God that is too abstract or distant. God isn't a general benevolent force throwing down grace like confetti on the wind. He knows my name. He cares about my life. He cares about the well-being of my throat. Ours is a God who is up close and personal. He is in my business. He's in yours, too. Sometimes we think that God only really cares about whether I've made the right decisions lately, like He's keeping score on my life and that's His number one role. That type of God probably doesn't go out of His way to inspire devotion and prayer just for healthy throats. The God who does inspire the devotion we see to St. Blaise and the blessing of throats clearly cares, even in the nitty-gritty details of life. He's the one who is by my side in it each and every day. That's a reminder that I need, regardless of how my throat is feeling.

"Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Blessing of St. Blaise).

God Bless Us All

SACRED HEART SCHOOL NEWS

Chalking of Doors: A beautiful Epiphany tradition led by 8th grade students.

A special blessing was said and each door on campus was marked by the formula $20+C+M+B+26$ which stands for year 2026 and the three Kings Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar. We pray that God will bless our school and every room, inviting Christ to dwell within, honoring the Magi's visit, and offering protection.

Let us give thanks to our teachers and staff for leading our school Mass on January 14th.

What is Ordinary Time?

Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. (www.USCCB.org)
